

What Happens at the Post Office Stays at the Post Office

- Our customers and suppliers trust us with important information so we can do our jobs.
- If you use their nonpublic information in other ways to help you or help someone else, you are misusing your position and violating ethics regulations.

Keeping the confidences of our customers enhances the Postal Service's reputation for trustworthiness.

And that's smart business.

Contact the Ethics Office (ethics.help@usps.gov) for more guidance.
