Staying hydrated

When you need to quench that thirst, drink water first.

Drinking water or unsweetened beverages instead of sugary drinks cuts calories. Soda, energy drinks and sports drinks are a major source of added sugar and calories in American diets. Drinking water is healthier for you and can help you keep your weight down.

And that’s smart safety.

For additional information or guidance, contact your safety office.