

I'm on the team

All in for safety.

It takes teamwork to prevent accidents and injuries in the workplace. Work cooperatively to identify and report unsafe conditions and behaviors. Be committed to developing an awareness of potential hazards.

When it comes to improving safety culture in your workplace, you have a crucial role in making it happen. Turn your old bad habits into new safe habits.

And that's smart safety.

For additional information or guidance, contact your safety office.