

When's the last time you connected?

- Connect your computer to the Postal Service intranet weekly to receive software and virus-protection updates.
- It keeps away hackers and viruses.

Ensuring your desktop or laptop has the latest software updates helps keep postal information systems secure against malicious cyber intrusions that hurt our reputation are costly to address.

And that's smart business.