

It's What's Inside That Counts

- The cleanliness of our Post Offices — from the retail area to the P.O. Box section — can alter the perception of our customers — for good or bad.
- Make sure we look our best when we invite customers into our Post Offices.

It's about delivering great service and meeting customer expectations.

Clean Post Offices will keep our customers coming back, and that's smart business.