

Seeking Employment

- Don't use your Postal Service contacts to look for a new job!
- Seeking employment with a person or company you work with on behalf of the Postal Service may violate a federal criminal law.
- "Seeking employment" includes sending a resume, calling someone to discuss job prospects, or failing to immediately reject a job offer from a prospective employer.

Staying out of jail is good for you, good for the Postal Service, and smart business.

Contact the Ethics Office (ethics.help@usps.gov) for guidance _____ starting that job search.