

Keep Track

- Pay attention to employee attendance and properly document all absences.
- Employees should not get paid for working, unless they're actually working.

It's about preventing time and attendance fraud.

And that's smart business.

Find more information about time and attendance tools at Handbook F-21.