

Respect the Customer

- Where would the Postal Service be without customers?
- Don't speak negatively about our customers.
- Your paycheck depends on them.

It's about building positive customer relationships.

And that's smart business.