

Is your beneficiary information up to date?

- Make sure your insurance information is current.
- The Postal Service wants to be able to help your family should the unexpected happen.

Accuracy of information benefits both you and the Postal Service.

And that's smart business.