It All Adds Up

➢ The Postal Service generates $71 billion in annual revenue from the sale of products and services. Protecting revenue is everyone's responsibility.

➢ Every employee performs a key role when ensuring the USPS receives the correct revenue for all products and services.

➢ Submit leads for revenue assurance and protection opportunities to: revenueassurance@usps.gov

Protecting postal revenue helps ensure our financial future.

And that's smart business.