

Ladder Safety

Your first step is staying safe.

Prevent falls from ladders by following basic safety rules. Make sure your ladder is in good condition and positioned firmly on a level surface. Don't reach out too far. Always keep three points of contact while climbing.

Taking extra care when using a ladder will prevent accidents and injuries that could result in lost work days.

And that's smart safety!

For additional information or guidance, contact your safety office.