

Alert Driving

Don't get cocky.

Accidents happen for reasons you can't always control. Sometimes they happen because you think you're too good a driver to ever do anything wrong. Don't let your guard down. Always pay attention to the roadway, obstacles and other drivers.

Be alert. Be vigilant. Always!

And that's smart safety!

For additional information or guidance, contact your safety office.