

Proper Footwear

How's your arch support?

Wear proper footwear to reduce slips, trips and falls, and ease strained muscles. Shoes need to provide adequate cushioning and take care of your arches. This helps reduce fatigue and enables you to do your job more safely and efficiently.

Supervisors should periodically check to ensure employees are wearing approved footwear.

And that's smart safety.

For additional information or guidance, contact your safety office.