

Icy Driving

It's not a game of peekaboo.

Driving in a winter storm is all about visibility. Make sure windshield wipers are in good shape. Use “no-freeze” windshield washer fluid. Check defrosters and lights to make sure they're working properly.

Better you can see through the storm, better your chances of arriving safely at your destination.

And that's smart safety!

For additional information or guidance, contact your safety office.